

adventures

There's More to Explore with Audubon Adventures

Available now for traditional in-person classroom teaching, hybrid school-home teaching, and homeschooling, for grades 3-5.

Bird Migration Explorer: Interactive Map/STEM. Contains Bird Migration Explorer (interactive digital bird migration mapping tool; no student magazine), Birds on the Move, and Safety for Birds in Flight.

Birds of a Feather, vol. 1. Contains Owl Prowl, Watery World of Wading Birds, and Hooray for Hummingbirds.

Birds of a Feather, vol. 2. Contains Raptors, Seabirds, and Shorebirds.

Birds, Bees, Flowers & Trees. Contains Hooray for Hummingbirds, The Buzz About Native Bees, and Plants Are for the Birds.

KITS INCLUDE ...

Traditional classroom or hybrid kit

- 32 printed copies of two* or three student magazines

Homeschool kit

- 1 printed copy of each of three student magazines

Every kit

- Online interactive features for students
- Online informational science text for students
- Online teacher guide
- Online teacher-guided investigations in local habitats and in the classroom/home
- Online assessment questions and answer key
- Online access to other Audubon Adventures topics

CORRELATED TO:

- Common Core Reading and Writing Standards
- Next Generation Science Standards

*The Bird Migration Explorer kit contains two student magazines; all others contain three.

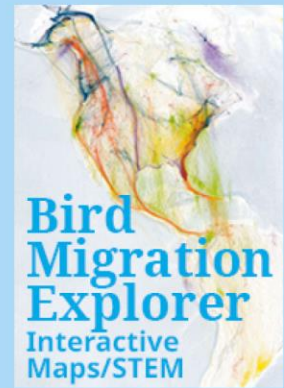

For more information: audubonadventures.org
Contact your nearest Audubon Chapter listed below to order.

Marie Longo
Education Chair
Bergen County Audubon Society
MLongo8383@aol.com
(201) 498-0809

The Newest Audubon Adventures Kit

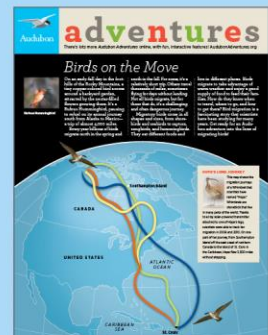

Bird Migration Explorer

A powerful tool for exploring and visualizing bird migration.

We can do a lot to make windows and buildings safer for birds.

For birds large and small, migration is a remarkable feat.

Other kits are also available from Audubon Adventures!
AudubonAdventures.org